WINNER OF THE CATEGORY

Perceptive Practice

For making attention the first and most exacting instrument of design.

AWARDED TO

Alessio Belloni

BEYOND SPACE

At Beyond Space, Alessio Belloni approaches architecture as an act of attention, guided by his commitment to learning to see and learning to listen. As winner of Perceptive Practice, he is recognised for a sensibility sharpened by photography, and for naming light as a material rather than merely a condition. His admiration for Le Corbusier and affection for home locate that curiosity between architectural ambition and daily life.
